CASE STUDY · CONCEPT

TRIPLY

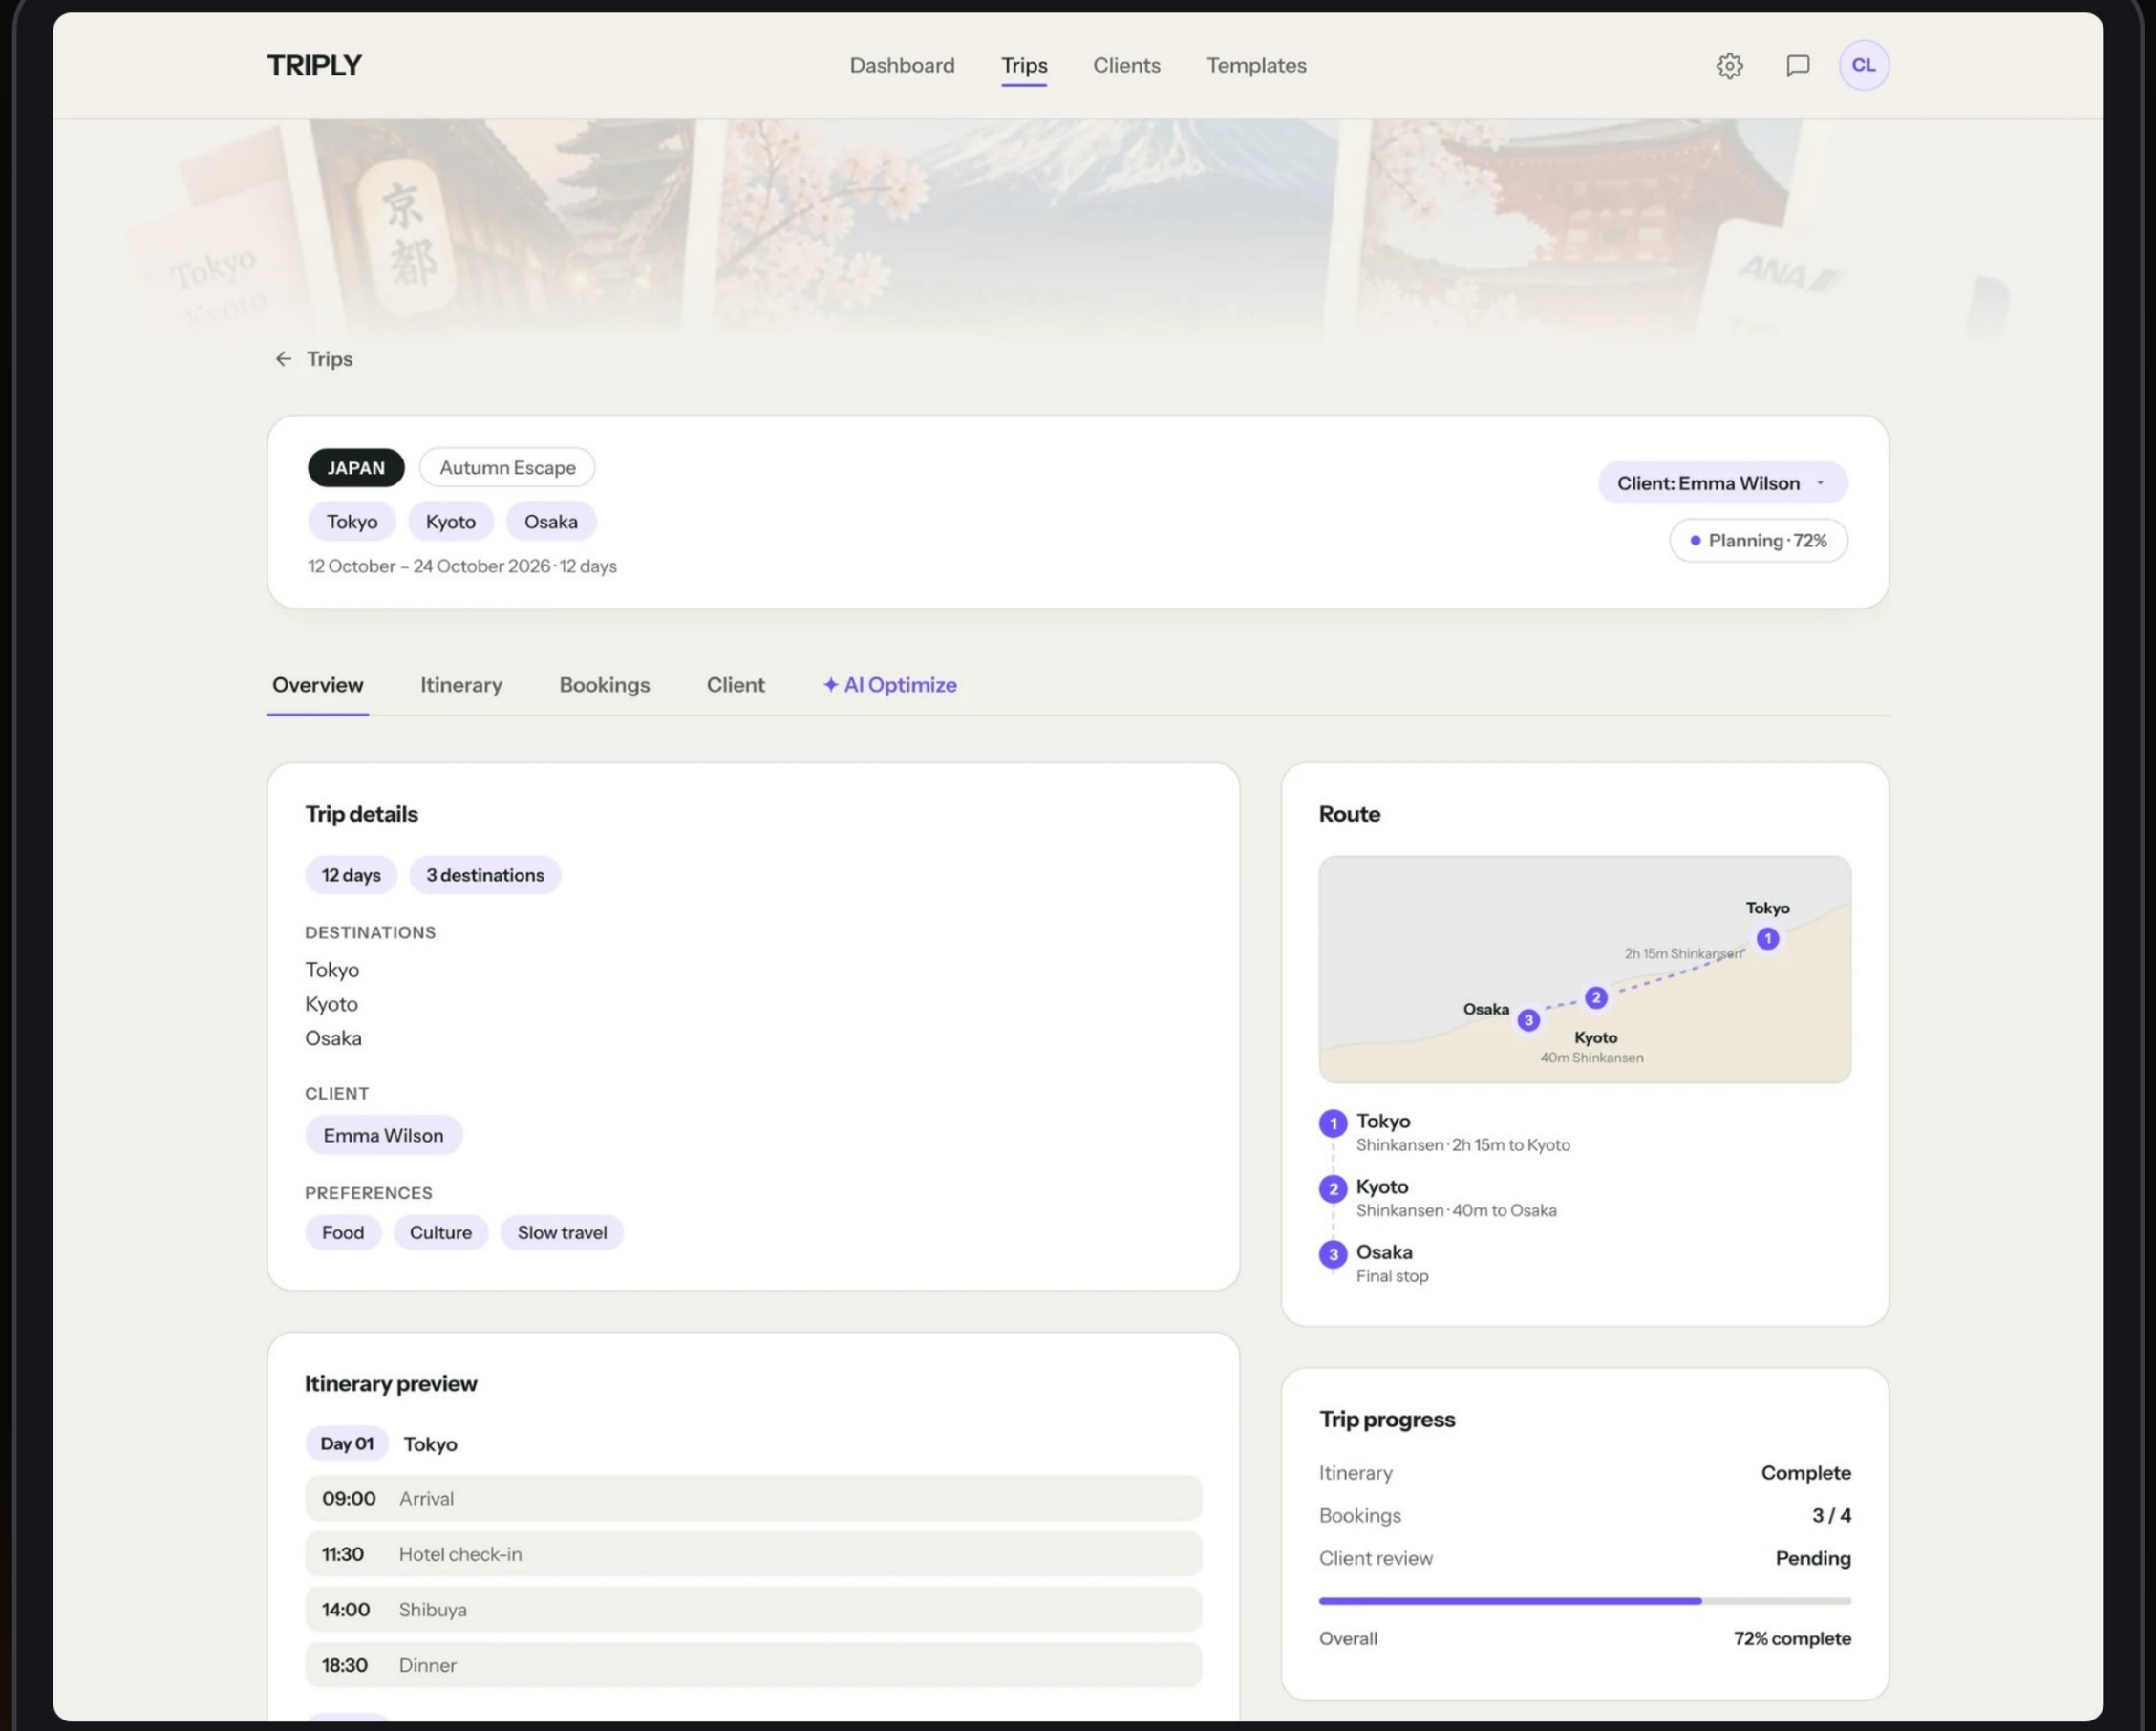

A travel planning platform for travel designers and their clients.

THE IDEA

ONE WORKSPACE FOR THE WHOLE TRIP

- Collect places, ideas and trip details in one overview
- Organize day-by-day itineraries with times and transit
- Collaborate: clients review, suggest, vote and approve

DASHBOARD

EVERY TRIP IS A FOLDER

Destinations, dates and progress at a glance. Opening a folder animates it into the trip workspace.

ITINERARY

DAY BY DAY, WITH A ROUTE

Timed stops, transit between them and a map. Overview and itinerary read the same trip data.

TRIPLY

Dashboard Trips Clients Templates

CL

← Trips

JAPAN Autumn Escape

Tokyo Kyoto Osaka

12 October – 24 October 2026 · 12 days

Client: Emma Wilson

Planning · 72%

Overview Itinerary Bookings Client ✦ AI Optimize

01 Tokyo 12 Oct
02 Tokyo 13 Oct
03 Tokyo 14 Oct
04 Kyoto 15 Oct
05 Kyoto 16 Oct
06 Kyoto 17 Oct
07 Kyoto 18 Oct
08 Osaka 19 Oct
09 Osaka 20 Oct
10 Osaka 21 Oct
11 Osaka 22 Oct
12 Osaka 23 Oct
13 Tokyo 24 Oct

DAY 02

Tokyo Essentials

Tokyo · 13 Oct

Temples, markets and local city life.

4 stops · approximately 8.6 km

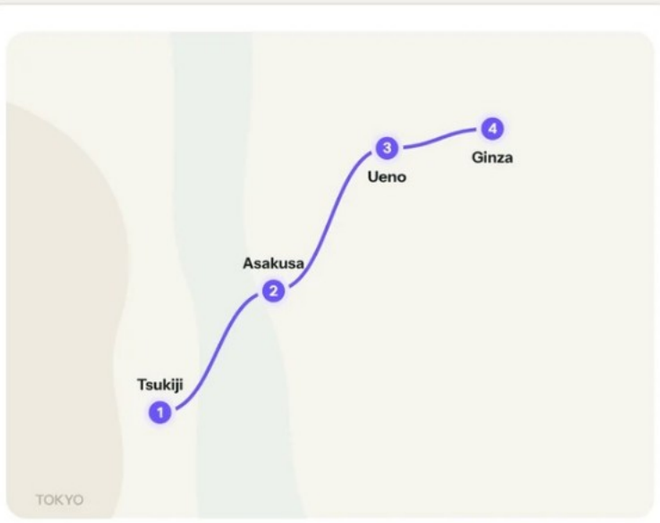

09:00 Tsukiji Outer Market
Tsukiji · 1h 30m

18 min from previous stop
11:30 Senso-ji Temple
Asakusa · 1h

22 min transit
14:00 Ueno Park
Ueno · 1h 30m

25 min transit
18:30 Dinner · Ginza
Ginza · 1h 30m

+ Add activity ✦ Optimize day

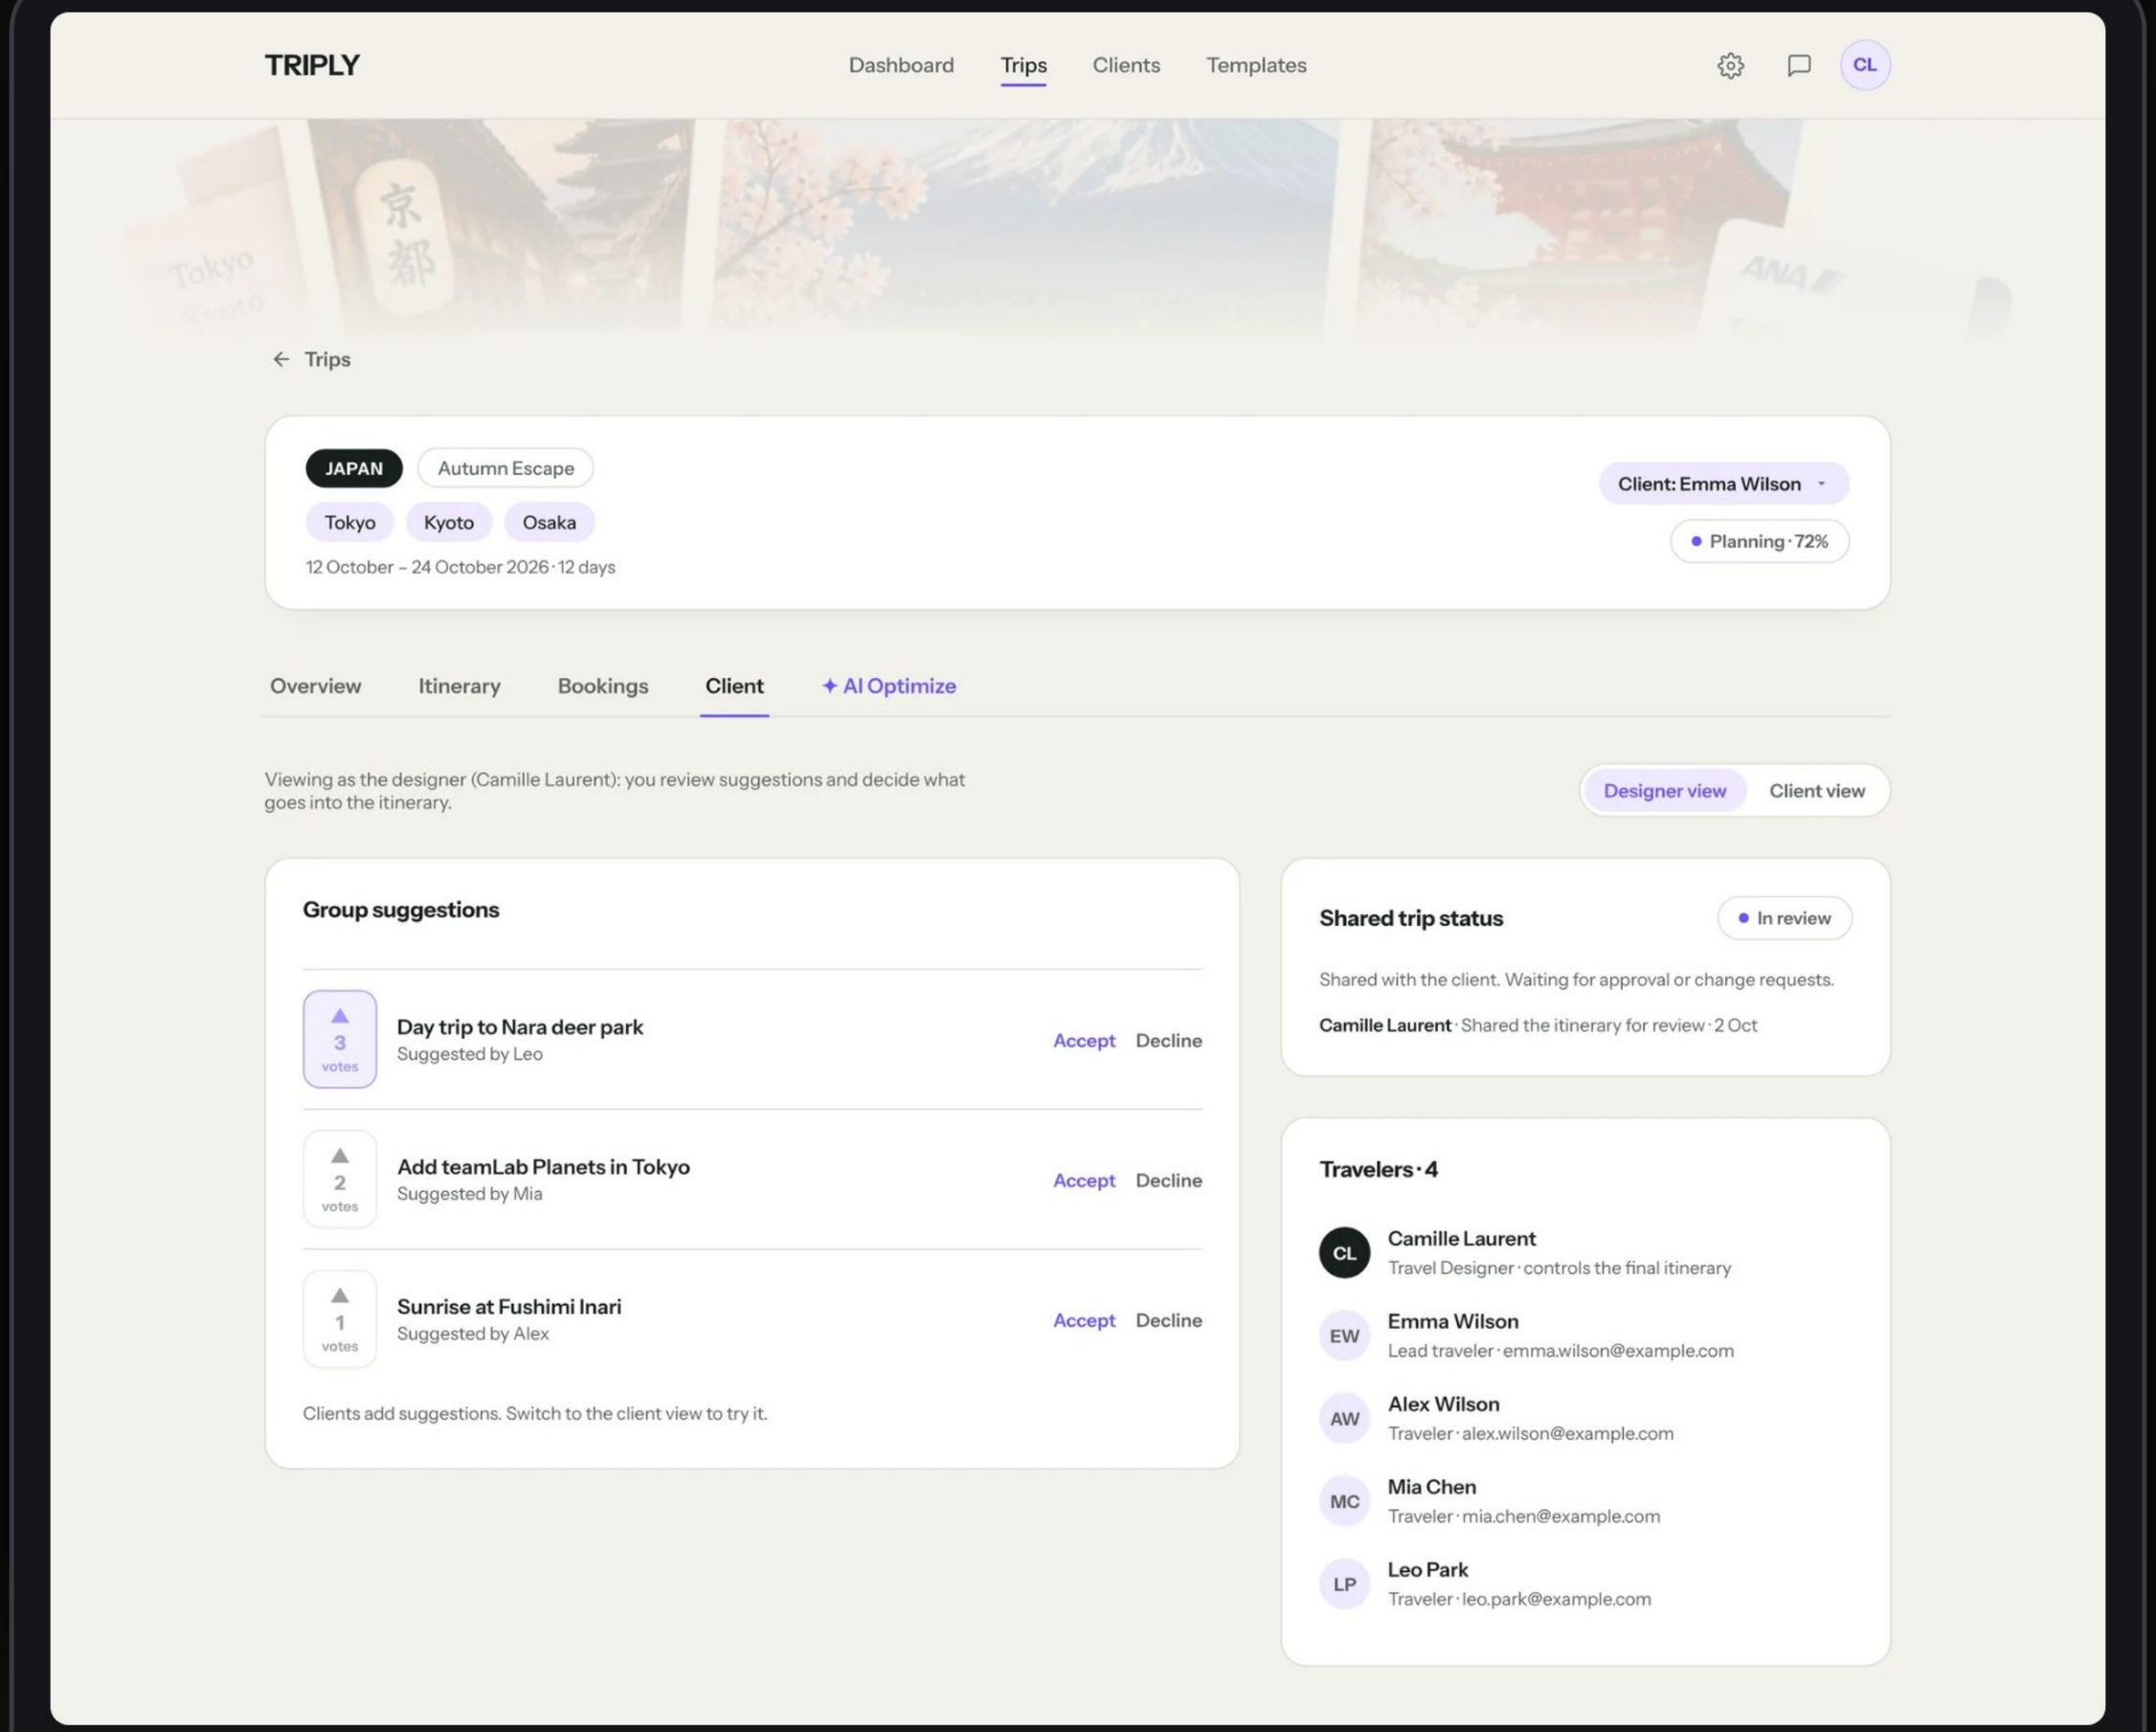

4 planned stops · 8.6 km · Walk + Metro Start 09:00

COLLABORATION

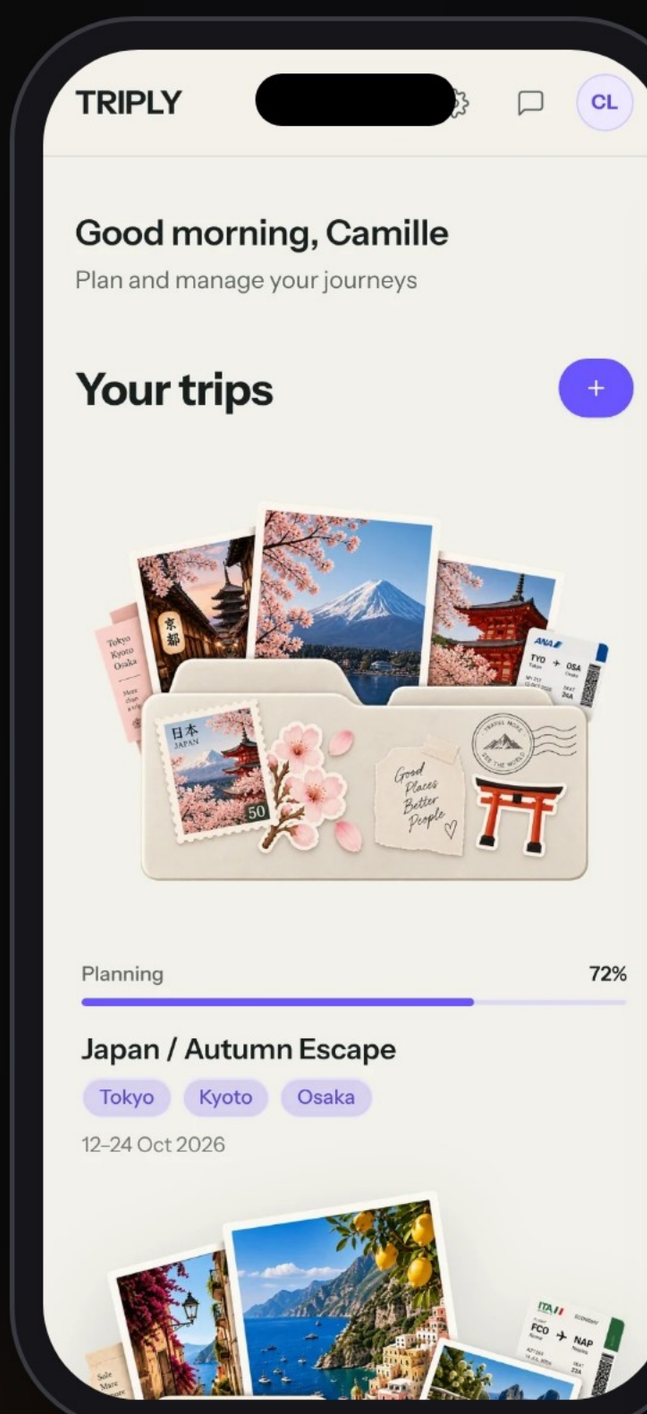

DESIGNER AND CLIENT VIEWS

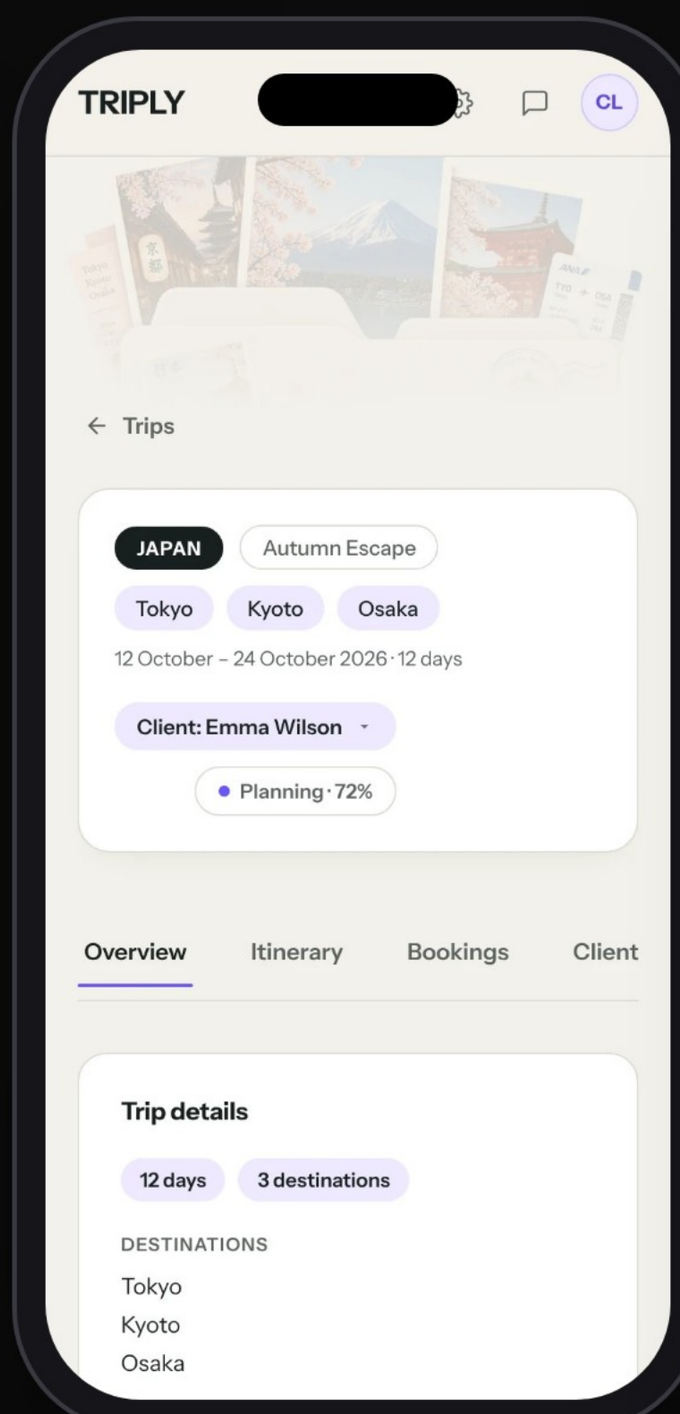

Clients review, suggest places, vote and approve. The designer decides what enters the itinerary.

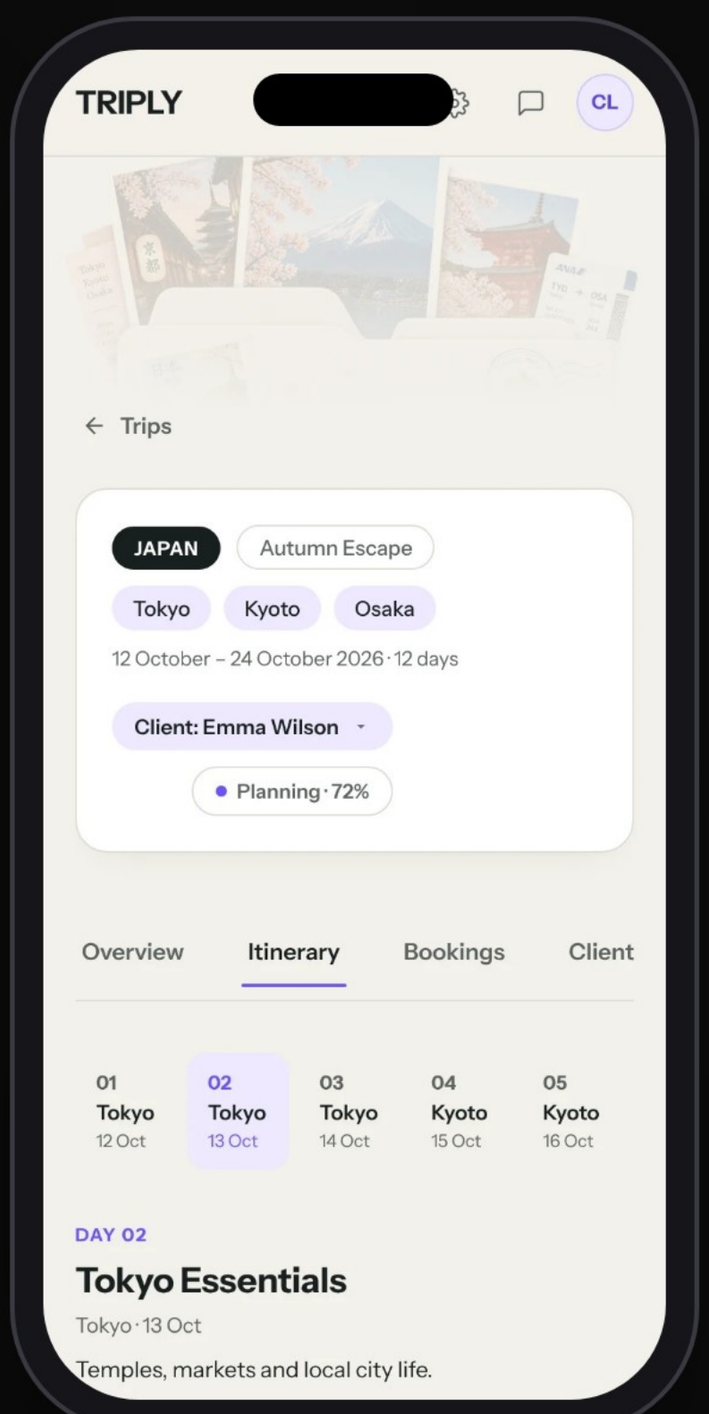

ON A PHONE

RESPONSIVE SCREENS

HONEST SCOPE

A CONCEPT PROTOTYPE

- Demo data stored in the browser
- Schematic map, no real routing yet
- No backend, booking or payments
- Next: real map, client share link, testing with travel designers

Full case study: link in the first comment.